HIDDEN STRENGTHS, HIDDEN CHALLENGES “WHOLE CHILD” LEARNING FOR SOCIETY TODAY

Guest speaker: Christine Keller, M.A., M.S.Ed.
Executive Director, The Childrens Sangha

This presentation will foster a renewed appreciation for the student population you are parenting or educating. You will learn about “Kids in the Middle” which includes those students referred to as 2e: Twice Exceptional. We will highlight the importance of a “whole child” approach to teaching and learning in which a community of care, cooperation, and compassion enables children to find personal meaning in learning, grow at their developmental pace, and cultivate a feeling of self-worth for who they are and how they learn. The shift in perspective gained will open the door to the use of creative solutions applicable to all students with focus on skill building which addresses the misconception that one-size-fits-all.

Join us to learn what exciting events and programs HHH SEPTA has lined up for the year. Support HHH SEPTA by becoming a member, memberships will be sold at every HHH SEPTA meeting as well as online on our website. Everyone is welcome, bring a friend.
