

PRE-COLLEGE PORTFOLIO DEVELOPMENT

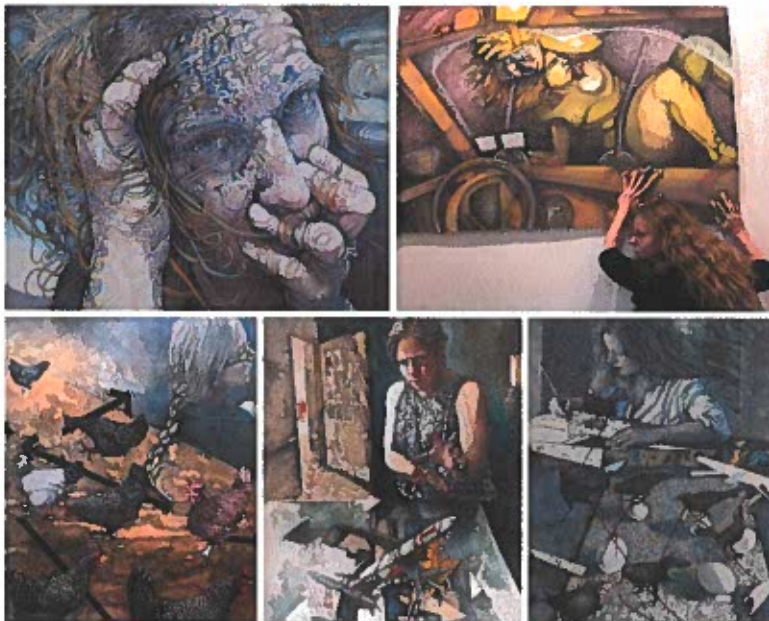

AN IN-PERSON 2-WEEK SUMMER INTENSIVE FOR TEENS
AT THE ART LEAGUE OF LONG ISLAND

TUESDAY- FRIDAY, 10am-3pm | 2 WEEKS, 8 CLASSES

SESSION 1: 7/13 - 7/23
SESSION 2: 7/27-8/6

This is not a Half Hollow Hills School District sponsored or endorsed activity. The Art League of Long Island is a 501(c)3 visual arts organization.

In this 2-week studio intensive, students will develop skills that lead to expressive and creative portfolio quality works. Projects will range from an hour to a few days. Students will explore mediums such as colored pencil, acrylic, graphite and watercolor. Subjects will include the human figure, portraiture, still life, and abstraction. Effective composition and drama through the use of light and color will be a focus of this course. Individual critique of new and existing artworks will be an important element in this course. Please bring a few examples of what you consider to be your best works to the first class for a critique! Guidance on what colleges and universities look for in a portfolio will also be discussed. Ages 14-19

- Get feedback on your existing portfolio and work
- Jumpstart the portfolio development process or enhance your existing portfolio
- Life drawing from a live model
- Small class size with lots of individual instruction and guidance

DR. PATRICK HARRIGAN

Instructor Margaret Minardi

Margaret Minardi is an acclaimed Long Island based artist with 30 years experience as a high school art teacher. She is a dedicated teacher with a passion for helping young artists achieve their artistic goals.

"I believe in a thorough classical training. I teach from the pinth up. Once students have mastered structural and proportional goals individual strengths are encouraged and expanded. I am passionate about the unlimited creative possibilities found in each student."

"I have a wide knowledge of colleges and universities and their specialties. I am able to discern the individual needs of students and am able to direct them pointedly. I am versatile with mediums that include drawing and painting, printmaking and mixed media. I am also expert in the preparation of portfolios for college and for A.P. portfolios. For me, teaching is a joy and a privilege."
