

HHH SEPTA MEETING November 14, 2018 7:30PM

Please join us at The Fran Greenspan Administration Center located on 525 Half Hollow Road
in the conference room.

DECIPHERING NEUROPSYCHOLOGICAL EVALS AND THE ROLE OF EXECUTIVE FUNCTIONING SKILLS IN LEARNING

Guest speaker Dr. Philip Eisenberg, Ph.D., ABPP

Discover what a comprehensive neuropsychological evaluation is and how it can benefit children with autism spectrum disorders and other difficulties affecting learning, attention, cognitive, and learning abilities. Dr. Eisenberg, board certified in clinical neuropsychology with subspecialty board certification in pediatric neuropsychology, will also shine a light on the important role executive functioning skills play in a student's ability to learn and master skills. Come and join us as we share what exciting events and programs we have lined up for the year. Everyone is welcome, bring a friend.
