*Grade level teachers developed the order of lessons based on assessment of students' prior knowledge and experience with grammar and the writing process. Chapters that cover the writing process and its subtopics (prewriting and drafting: chapters 1, 4 and 5 and revising, editing, and presenting: chapters 11 and 12) are not included here at all grade levels; however, this information will be included on quarterly exams. It is up to the individual teacher on how best to incorporate these lessons into daily writing instruction.
